FINAL NOTE BY THE MINISTER FOR LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC HEALTH.

Subject:—

Five-year plan for Rural Reconstruction in the State.

With a view to improve the existing condition of villages in the State, a scheme of concentrated propaganda in selected villages was put into operation in June 1936. The intention of Government in launching the scheme was that the work in the selected villages might eventually serve as an example for emulation by the other less advanced villages. Though appreciable results have been achieved during the past six years in the villages so selected, the expectations of Government in this behalf have not been fully realised for several reasons and the general standard of a large number of villages in the State still leaves much to be desired. On a Resolution being pressed for acceptance at the Dasara Session of the Representative Assembly in October 1941 that, at least, 150 villages should be worked as model villages every year in each District, Government pointed out that it was not practicable to give effect to the Resolution, as it stood, but they assued the House that the question of accelerating progress under Rural Reconstruction would receive special attention of Government.

A programme for a Rural Recpnstruction Drive on a wider scale than at present has, accordingly, been prepared with the object of improving every village in the State within a definite period of five years. Under this scheme, it is proposed to introduce concentrated propaganda into one Hobli of each taluk during the first year and to extend the scheme into other hoblis at the rate of one hobli each year. By this process, the scheme will have come into operation in all the villages in the State at the end of five years. The advantage of this arrangement would be that all the available resources of the several Departments might be pooled together and consolidated efforts put forth for fulfilling the primary needs of the hobli in the matter of sanitation, drinking water facilities and inter-communications etc., within a definite period. It is proposed to appoint suitable non-official workers who could reside in the hoblis selected for work and ~~who can~~ create a live interest in the villagers. The workers will be paid an honorarium of Rs.30/- per mensem plus a contingent allowance of Rs.5/- per mensem each and they will be given a course of necessary training for three months in Rural Reconstruction work according to a prescribed programme before posting them to the hoblis.

Draft I

The scheme is proposed to be launched during the current year and the draft Government Order placed in the file indicates the salient features thereof.

(The following new schemes on which the brief notes had been furnished to the members were taken up for consideration.)

(1) The Five year plan for Rural Reconstruction in Mysore.

A sum of Rs 1 lakh has been included in the Provisional Budget for 1942-43 for this new scheme of Hobli Workers and for the intensive action to be launched in each Hobli.

x x x

(a) The Five year plan for Rurual Reconstruction.

In the course of the discussion on this subject, Mr.Chengalaraya Reddy mentioned that with regard to the selection of Hobli Workers contemplated in this scheme, it would be desirable to specify the functions and duties of the Hobli Worker and to lay down a definite procedure for his work. Again it was equally necessary that efficient supervision had to be arranged for to ensure the objectives of the work being realised in execution. He Emphasised that the Hobli Worker should, as far as possible, be free from official control as otherwise, it would be tantamount to merely adding to Government servants.

Mr. M.Ramachandra Rao enquired whether it would be possible to appoint an officer for some time to guide the Workers.

The Chairman said that such an officer could do very little. The work of the Hobli Workers will generally be supervised by the Revenue authorities who will always have continuous regard to the interests of and have sympathy with the village people. Continuing, the Chairman said that the person appointed as "Hobli Worker" must possess very great influence among the rural population and should have always the interest of villagers in his mind.

As requested by Mr.K.Chengalaraya Reddy copies of the notes on the subjects approved by the Standing Committee for L.S.G, Public Health, Sanitation and Medicine, were distributed.

After some discussion, the Committee generally approved approved of the arrangements contemplated in the Scheme.

of ~~District~~

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a copy of Government Order No.L.15-60/V.P. 23-42-7 Dated, Camp. Mysore, 22nd October 1942, I am directed to state that a notification (vide copy enclosed) has been separately issued calling for applications from intending candidates for being trained and appointed as Hobli workers in Rural Welfare work. After the date specified in the notice is over, the applications received may be consolidated and a list thereof sent to this office before 12th November 1942.

In this connection, I am to state that the success of the scheme depends upon the quality of workers selected and it is necessary that the best possible selection should be made.

In addition to the qualifications set forth in the Notification, the following standards should be kept in view in selecting the candidates:-

(1) They must be capable of withstanding physical exertion and fatigue.

(2) They should be able to infuse confidence and respect in the villagers.

(3) They should be men of character with simple and good habits.

(4) They must have cosmopolitan and liberal views.

(5) They should have organising capacity.

(6) They must be resourceful, adjustable and have an even temperament.

and (7) They should have the genuine desire to serve the country.

At the time of final selection of candidates, the Minister, Local Self-Government and Public Health will, if possible, be also present and the date on which it will be convenient for him to visit the district for this purpose will be intimated to you in due course.

In the meanwhile, the tentative list of candidates according to the applications received may be sent up with details to Government before the above date.

As the scheme has to be launched without loss of time, I am to request you to pay personal attention to this most important matter at every stage.

The Revenue Commissioner in Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

I am directed to state that Govt. have decided to take up a scheme of rural drive during 1942-43 on a wider scale, than the present arrangement of selecting two or thre villages in a Taluk every year, so as to -- obtain quicker results in rural welfare work as has been ~~pressed upon~~ urged on the attention of Government ~~repeatedly~~ at the sessions of the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council.

D 25-7-42
Sd. by Mr. Rao

The main outlines of the scheme are set forth in the accompanying note and orders initiating the Scheme will be separately issued in this behalf.

It is proposed to take up the work in one Hobli in each Taluk every year so that all the 364 Hoblis may be covered within a period of five years.

An additional sum of one lakh of rupees has been accordingly set apart in the State Budget for 1942-43 specially for the above purpose.

Before initiating the scheme, certain preliminaries have to be settled. The first of these relates to the selection of the -- particular Hobli in each Taluk in which the scheme may be started this year and secondly the choice of suitable workers and their training about 100 in number

In regard to the Hobli to be selected in each Taluk, it should be generally the -- one in which the scheme could be successfully worked out to start with. The criterion of selection may be the Hobli ~~which has the highest amount of arrears of village panch~~

Panchayet taxes or one which has the highest amount of cash balance at its credit, so that improvement works may be taken up easily. If both these conditions could be satisfied in respect of any Hobli, it would be all the better. The number of villages comprised in each Hobli need not, however, be the criterion and if the number of inhabited villages is larger than 40, then two -- workers could be posted for work. The names of such Hoblis may be kindly furnished to Government in consultation with the Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

As soon as the Hobli is selected, the Amildar of the Taluk should be instructed to tour in that Hobli for about a week and see that the accounts of the Village Panchayets are thoroughly audited. If this is done, it would give the Government an idea of the exact amount of arrears to be collected and the financial stability of the villages. All the required registers should be got opened and maintained up-to-date. The Baki patties should be also got prepared and kept ready.

In regard to the choice of workers who will have to work on an honorary basis, the following should be the guiding factors in selecting them:-

(1) He should be a resident of the Hobli and should be able to move about freely among the villagers. He should be able to create a momentum for work in the villages so that the urge for improvement comes from within and not imposed from without.

(2) The general educational qualifications may be of the S.S.L.C.standard. If the right type of individual who knows enough of reading,writing and correspondence to guide the Village Panchayets in their working, the above condition may be relaxed in such cases.

(3) Each honorary worker would be given an honorarium of Rs.30 plus Rs.5 per mensem.

4. The Deputy Commissioners of District may be requested to prepare a list of ~~names of~~ such persons available in each Hobli and forward it to Government. In the initial stages, if young, energetic and enthusiastic Revenue Inspectors are available, they may be appointed for the work in the particular Hoblis. The suggestions of the Deputy Commissioners on this point may also be obtained and forwarded.

As the Hobli Scheme will come into operation from this year, it is not necessary to assign grants to the Village Panchayets as hitherto out of the Rural Reconstruction Grant, as the money would be required for undertaking several kinds of improvement works in the Hoblis now to be selected. In regard to the actual selection of workers, a committee will be appointed therefor.

Before

Before the workers could be posted, it is necessary that they should be given effective training in all branches of -- work pertaining to rural welfare. A draft programme of training to be given to them for a period of ~~three~~ two or three months in the Closepet and Doddaballapur Rural Welfare Centres, etc. may be kindly prepared and furnished to Government. It is requested to submit necessary proposals for their training facilities.

The above information may be kindly submitted to Government before the ~~25th~~ 5th August 1942. The Deputy Commissioners may be also instructed to give their personal attention to this matter and to furnish the details with the least possible delay.

Note regarding the Five-year Plan for Rural Reconstruction in the State.

With a view to enlarge the scope of the work of the Village Panchayet Administration which was till then confined, in most cases, to measures of village sanitation, and with a view to concentrate and co-ordinate the efforts of the several development departments in villages, Government issued certain instructions in their Order No. 8508-8557—V. P. 44-35-2, dated the 9th May 1936, for organizing concentrated propaganda in selected villages. In pursuance of these instructions, two or three villages at a time are being selected in each Taluk for concentrated propaganda and the progress made in such villages is being reviewed every half year. The work was commenced in June 1936 in 182 villages and the number has now reached 264. It was no doubt intended that the improvement works done in these selected villages should serve as a model to other villages which could adopt those methods easily. But experience has shown that our villages are too slow to adopt the methods of improvement employed in the selected villages and to benefit by this scheme, and the general condition of the villages is still very backward and the attempts made in selected villages have not brought the desired result. Among the many other factors, the existence of party strifes and illiteracy have been the potent factors against the progress of the village improvement work. But one noticeable feature is that wherever the local gentlemen have evinced keen interest in, and hearty co-operation with, the efforts of the departmental officers, the progress achieved is not only striking but very hopeful. For instance, the work done in Jayamangala and Lakkur (Malur Taluk) and Hulibele (Bowringpet Taluk) has been very encouraging and the work of the local gentlemen of these villages is really praiseworthy. Such cases are, however, far and few between. Effective and speedy reconstruction of our village life will be a forlorn hope if we should be content with the present measures of approach to the problem, and the present pace of progress. Bolder and more intensive efforts are necessary if we have to take our villages a step further than what they are to-day within some measurable period.

During the Dasara Session of October 1941, the Representative Assembly unanimously passed a Resolution to the effect "that every year at least 150 villages in each District be converted into model villages in accordance with a Ten-year Plan of Rural Reconstruction." During the discussions, it was replied on behalf of Government, that as conversion of every village into a model village involved a large expenditure, it was a point for consideration how far it would be feasible to put the Resolution into practice and that the Resolution could not be accepted and the House was assured that the question of accelerating progress under Rural Reconstruction would receive the special attention of Government in future.

It is not financially possible for Government to take up a very large number of villages at a time and convert them into model villages as implied in the Resolution. But it is necessary to accelerate the Rural Reconstruction activities on a wider scale than at present and we should therefore put into action the scheme outlined in the Government Order dated the 9th May 1936 into one Hobli of each Taluk to start with, so that the scheme could be put into operation in 78 Hoblis (each Hobli consists of 40 to 60 villages) in all the Taluks put together, and that the scheme be extended to one more Hobli every next year. There are altogether 364 Hoblis in the State and within a period of five years, the scheme will have been put into operation into all the Hoblis. There is a distinct advantage in selecting one entire Hobli for concentrated propaganda as against the selection of two or three villages scattered in the Taluk, as all the available resources such as, the Rural Water Supply Funds, Inter-village Communication Funds and Rural Reconstruction Funds can be pooled together and consolidated efforts put forth for fulfilling the primary needs of the entire Hobli in the matter of sanitation, drinking water facilities, rural communications, etc. One drawback of the scheme in vogue is that the initiative and direction of the improvement works depend upon official agency and that the scope for the non-official initiative is very limited. It is proposed to remedy this defect in the present scheme by the appointment for each Hobli of an honorary and trained worker who would reside in the Hobli and would assist in creating a live interest in the villagers and in co-ordinating the work of the several departments in that Hobli. He will be more or less like the Managers of the Rural Welfare Centres at Closepet and Dodballapur. He should form a veritable link between the villagers and the Government Officers. He may be given an honorarium of Rs. 30 per mensem with a contingent allowance of Rs. 5 per mensem.

As it is proposed to start the scheme in one Hobli in each Taluk in the first instance, 80 workers will be required for all the Taluks and 100 Hobli workers would be selected in the first instance and given the necessary training for a period of three months in the Rural Welfare Centres at Dodballapur and Closepet, according to a programme to be drawn up for the purpose. The candidates for selection should preferably be the residents of the Hobli or must be prepared to reside in the Hobli and should have at least studied up to the S.S.L.C. Standard, this condition being relaxed in exceptional cases of tried workers.

The selection of candidates would be done carefully by a Committee. Aptitude and zeal for the Rural Welfare work should be the guiding factors in making the selection, more than the academical qualifications of the candidates.

The programme of the work indicated in the annexure to the Government Order dated the 9th May 1936 would be amplified to include formation of Hobli Unions, Conferences, drawing up of programme of needs of each village, etc., and the appointment of the Hobli workers should in no way be considered to lessen the existing responsibility of the Revenue Officers in regard to the Village Improvement Works. On the other hand, the Amildar should pay greater attention to the selected villages and direct the workers with sympathy and earnestness. The Deputy Commissioners and the Revenue Sub-Division Officers should supervise the work of these Hoblis intensively and arrange to show tangible progress in the execution of the scheme. The cost on account of the pay, etc., of the honorary workers, is estimated at Rs. 50,000 per annum and it is proposed to be met from the State Funds. In the current year's budget, the allotment made under "Rural Reconstruction" is Rs. 2 lakhs out of which about 50 to 60 thousands of rupees go towards establishment charges and the remaining amount, viz., about Rs. 1,50,000, is left for distribution among the various Panchayets which number about 12,000. Though in recent years, separate provision has been made for sinking drinking-water wells and formation of inter-village communication roads, the amount which is being allotted under Rural Reconstruction is hardly sufficient to meet the needs of all the villages in the State. In addition to the two lakhs of rupees, another lakh of rupees has been set apart for the Rural Drive during next year (1942-43) and the sum of Rs. 50,000 required for the Hobli workers will be met out of this grant, the remaining amount being utilised for intensive action to be launched in each Hobli. The combined efforts of the official and non-official agency as suggested above would create the necessary incentive and interest in the rural folk for regeneration of our village life, and the expenditure is worth incurring.

There is money available already to the extent of Rs. 25 lakhs at the credit of the Village Panchayets and the accumulated arrears pending collection were Rs. 45 lakhs at the end of 1940-41. The object of the scheme is, by a vigorous drive on the lines outlined above, to convert the cash available and the arrears to be collected into substantial improvement works. If the scheme is successfully carried out, it would mean that, at the end of five years, Village Improvement Works to the extent nearly a crore and a half of rupees (25 lakhs cash plus 45 lakhs of arrears and 15 lakhs of Government grant and five years' collection from Village Panchayets) would have been carried out in the villages. The Village Panchayet Funds are the hard-earned money of villagers and it is not desirable to see that they remain in deposits or arrears when the villagers are badly wanting in even the elementary needs of life. By the successful prosecution of the scheme, another valuable result would be achieved, i.e., the villagers would realise that the imposition of V. P. taxes was to their real benefit. The idea is to see that Village Panchayets become really self-governing responsible units.

With reference to your Memo No.M7.2665/41-42 dated 29th July, 1942, calling for a draft programme of training to be given to Rural workers in connection with the introduction of the five-years scheme etc., I have the honour to state that the training may be given in the following subjects; the period of training being fixed as three months, as two months are not sufficient to cover up the entire programme.

1. Principles and methods of Rural Reconstruction.
2. Village Health and Sanitation.
3. Elementary agriculture.
4. Care of Cattle in Health and disease, and the importance of Live-stock improvement.
5. Poultry keeping on improved lines.
6. Sheep rearing on improved lines.
7. Scientific Bee keeping.
8. Village panchayat administration.
9. Co-operation.
10. Rural Scouting and village games.
11. Sericulture.
12. Cottage industry (to be selected by the Department of Industries.)
13. Formation of village forests.
14. Village Gardening.

Theory classes on these subjects will be held from 2 to 5 P.M., the practical classes being conducted in the morning hours from 7-to 12 noon. Weekly visits to villages will also be arranged along with local officers, for providing practical instruction in village improvement.

As regards facilities for these workers, as the Dodballapur Rural Welfare Centre is situated at a distance of nearly two miles from the town, accommodation will have to be provided to them at the centre itself or close to it, where a mess will also have to be run for them. Even if a few rooms are made available for the workers in the centre building by clubbing some of the offices, accommodation will not be sufficient unless some huts are pitched outside or a portion of the District Board Musaferkhana, which is about half a mile from the the centre is requisitioned for this purpose. In any case a mess will have to be run at the centre itself. Needful arrangements will be made in this behalf on receipt of further instructions in the matter.

SIR,

Subject:— Five year programme for an Intensive Drive for Rural Reconstruction in the State -- Proposals for inaugurating -

---:o:---

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No. L.2817/V.P.23-42 dated the 8th September 1942 on the above subject, I have the honour to forward, herewith, copies of the reports received from the several Deputy Commissioners of Districts. The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, has not given details of the number of Villages in each of the Hoblies selected in his District and the amounts at the credit of the Village Panchayets in these Hoblies, nor has he given any information regarding the course of training to be arranged for the workers at the Rural Welfare Centre at Closepet. The Deputy Commissioner, Hassan, has not sent the list of suitable workers available in each Hobli. I have reminded both the Deputy Commissioners to expedite their further reports. Information regarding the Hoblies to be selected during the first year of the scheme has, however, been received from all the Districts and a consolidated list of these Hoblies is enclosed.

2) Regarding the workers available to work the Scheme, the information furnished by the Deputy Commissioners of Districts (other than Hassan District) is consolidated in the enclosed statement B. According to your letter No.L.1050/V.P.23-42-5 dated the 15th July 1942, the Deputy Commissioners were requested to prepare a list of such persons available in each Hobli, the actual selection being left to a Committee to be -- appointed therefor. But, from the reports sent by the Deputy Commissioners, it is seen that many of them have been able to suggest only one candidate for each of the selected Hoblies. If, therefore, a Committee of Selection is to be appointed, I would suggest that the appointments may be duly notified and applications called for.

3) As for the course of training to be arranged for the selected workers, the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, has recommended, in his letter No.M7.2665/42-43, dated 31st August 1942, addressed to you, that this should cover a period of 3 months and I agree with him. The total number of workers to be trained will be about 120. As the facilities for training and the accommodation at both the Centres is limited, it will not be possible to train all the 120 candidates at the same time. They will, therefore, have to be split into two batches of about 60 each and while one batch is assigned to each of the two Rural Welfare Centres for training, the other may be sent in the first instance to the selected Hoblies to familiarise themselves, under the guidance of the local Officers, with the local conditions, general Administration of the Panchayets, Audit of Accounts, etc.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Revenue Commissioner.

Proceedings of the Govt. of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

Read:-

G.O.No.L.8508-8557/VP.44-35-2 dated 9th May 1936 laying down a scheme for organisation of concentrated propaganda in selected villages in the State.

2. Proceedings of the Standing Committee for Local Self Government and Department of Medicine and Public Health approving a scheme of five year plan for Rural Reconstruction in the State.

Order No.

Dated 1942.

With a view to enlarge the scope of the work of the Village Panchayet Administration which was till 1936 confined in most cases to measures of Village sanitation and with a view to concentrate and coordinating the efforts of the several development departments in villages, instructions were issued in the G.O. read above for organising concentrated propaganda in selected villages. In pursuance of these instructions, two or three villages at a time are being selected in each taluk for concentrated propaganda and the progress made in such villages is being reviewed every half year and published in the Gazette. The work commenced in June 1936 in 182 villages and the no: has now reached 273. It was no doubt intended that the improvement works done in these selected villages should serve as a model for other villages which could adopt those methods easily. But experience has shown that our villages are too slow to adopt the methods of improvement employed in select - villages and to benefit by this scheme and the general condition of the villages is still backward and the attempts made in the selected villages have not brought the desired results.

Among many other factors, the existence of party strifes and illiteracy have been the potent factors against the progress of the village improvement work. Effective and speedy reconstruction of village life has to be undertaken if any tangible results have to be achieved within a reasonable period.

During the Dasara Session of October 1941, the R. A unanimously passed a resolution to the effect that every year at least 150 villages in each District be converted into Model villages in accordance with a ten year plan of Rural Reconstruction. It was then replied on behalf of Government that, as conversion of every village into a model one would involve a large expenditure, it would not be feasible to put the resolution into practice and the question of accelerating progress under Rural Reconstruction would receive the special attention of Govt. in future. Govt. consider that it is necessary to accelerate the Rural Reconstruction activities on a wider scale than at present..

The question was considered by the Standing Committee of Local Self Govt. and Department of Public Health & Medicine and they have recommended that the scheme outlined in the G.O. dated 9-5-36 may be introduced into one hobli of each taluk to start with, so that it would be put into operation in 78 hoblies in all the taluks put together in one year and the same extended to one more hobli of the taluk every next year. There are altogether 364 hoblies in the State and within a period of 5 years, the scheme will have come into operation in all the hoblies. There is a distinct advantage in selecting one entire hobli for concentrated propaganda as against 2 or 3 villages scattered in a taluk as all the available resources can be pooled together and consolidated efforts put forth forth for fulfilling the numerous needs of the entire hobli in the matter of sanitation, drinking water facilities, rural communications etc. Govt. As greater initiative on the part of the Non-officials in this behalf would produce better and speedier results, it is proposed to entrust the work in each hobli to an Honorary and Trained Worker who should reside in the hobli and assist in creating a live interest in the villagers and in co-ordinating the work of the several departments in that hobli. He is expected to form a link between the villagers and the Govt. Officers. He may be given an Honorarium of Rs.30/- p.m. with a contingent allowance of Rs.5/- p.m. One hundred workers will be selected in the first instance and given necessary training for a period of 3 months in Rural Welfare Work, according to the programme drawn up for the purpose. The candidates should be the residents of the hobli or be prepared to reside in the hobli and move from one hobli to another also

A detailed note setting forth the above features of the scheme was circulated among the Members of the R. A. and L. C. during the last Budget Session and the scheme has been appreciatingly spoken of. Govt. have also made a provision of a lakh of rupees in the State Budget for 1942-43 for undertaking the special work under Rural Drive.

After careful consideration Govt. are pleased to accept the above recommendation of the committee and accordingly direct that the scheme of concentrated propaganda be introduced into one hobli in each taluk with effect from the current year. A statement showing the names of hoblies selected for this work during the year 42-43 to enter into the villages in each taluk is appended. The scheme will be extended to the other hoblies in due course.

The workers will be selected by a committee consisting of the D.C. of the Distt, the Pdt. of the Dt.

Dist.Board, and a Member of the L.C. in the Distt. The D.C.'s are requested to invite applications from intending candidates possessing the required qualifications, before the 25th Septr.1942, The candidates selected should also given an undertaking that they are prepared to serve for at least 5 years. Separate orders will issue in regard to the period and programme of training and the place where the training will be given.

The expenditure incurred in this behalf will be met out of the provision of one lakh of rupees referred to above.

Govt. take this opportunity however to make it clear that the appointment of the hobli workers should, in no way, be considered to lessen the existing responsibility of the Revenue Officers in regard to the village improvement work. On the other hand, the Amildar should pay greater attention to the selected villages and direct the workers with sympathy and earnestness. The D.C.'s and the Revenue S.D.O's should scrutinize the work of these hoblies intensively and arrange to show tangible progress in the execution of this scheme. The Heads of Deptts. are also requested to co-operate and see that special attention is paid to the work pertaining to that Department, in the selected areas.

The idea in launching the scheme is to see that the Village Panchayets become really self-governing responsible units and to create the necessary incentive and interest in the rural folk for the regeneration of the village life. Govt. hope that the co-operation of the Non-officials would be forthcoming in a large measure so that the objects of the Govt. would be achieved.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Subject :-

Five year plan for Rural Reconstruction in the State.

Read:-

1. Government Order No.L.8508-8557/V.P. 44-35-2, dated 9-5-1936 sanctioning a scheme for the organization of concentrated propaganda in selected villages in the State.

Order No

With a view to enlarge the scope of the work of the Village Panchayets, which was generally confined in most cases, to measures of village sanitation and to concentrate and co-ordinate the efforts of the several development departments in villages, Government sanctioned in the G.O. read above a scheme for organizing concentrated propaganda in some selected villages in each district. It was the intention of Government that such villages might eventually serve as examples of good Panchayet administration which less advanced Panchayets might be induced to follow.

2. To begin with, the scheme was put into operation in June 1936 in 182 villages being 2 or 3 villages in each taluk and the number of such villages has now reached 273. Appreciable results have been achieved in these villages in different directions indicated in the annexure to the G.O. read above. But the expectations of Government that the welfare works attempted in the model villages would be readily followed by the other villages, have not been realized for several reasons and the general standard of a great number of villages in the matter of sanitation, Panchayet administration etc. still requires to be improved. During the Dasara session of October 1941, ~~when~~ the Representative Assembly pressed for the acceptance of Government a Resolution to the effect that ~~that~~ every year at least 150 villages should be ~~converted into~~ worked as model villages in each district. Government stated that it was not ~~possible~~ practicable to give effect to the Resolution ~~on account of its impracticability~~ as it stood but assured ~~the members of~~ the House that the question of accelerating progress under Rural Reconstruction would receive the special attention of Government.

3 The matter was accordingly examined by the Government and they consider it necessary to lay down a definite programme of Rural Reconstruction drive on a wider scale than at present, so that within a definite period of five years, the general standard of the Panchayet administration and Village amenities may be improved. It is therefore proposed to introduce ~~the~~ concentrated propaganda into an entire hobli, ~~instead of confining it to 2 or 3 villages as hitherto~~, of each taluk during the first year and to extend the scheme into other hoblisx at the rate of one hobli each year. By this process the scheme will have come into operation in all the ~~hoblis~~ villages in the State at the end of 5 years. The distinct advantage in selecting one entire hobli as a unit for concentrated propaganda instead of one or two villages scattered in a taluk would be that all the available resources of the several departments could be pooled together with advantages and consolidated efforts put forth for fulfilling the primary needs of the hobli in the matter of sanitation, drinking water facilities, inter-communication etc within a definite period.

With a further desire to associate more of non-official initiative and direction in the Rural Welfare works, it is proposed to utilise the services of honorary workers who would reside in the hoblis and assist in creating a live interest in the villagers and in co-ordinating the work of the several departments. The various village problems which the hobli worker has to deal with are briefly set forth in the annexure to this ~~Government~~ Order.

* The workers will be paid an honorarium of Rs 30 p.m. plus a conveyance allowance of Rs 5 p.m.

Order. It is hoped that the combined efforts of the official and non-official agency would create the necessary incentive and interest in the rural folk to ~~reconstruct their~~ raise the standard of village life.

The money at the credit of Village Panchayets ~~is~~ at present is ~~to the extent of~~ about Rupees 28 lakhs and the arrears pending collection are to the tune of Rupees ~~45~~ 39 lakhs. A sum of Rupees three lakhs has been provided under 'Rural Reconstruction' ~~during~~ in the current year's budget and it may not be difficult for the Government to increase the Government grant suitably as the scheme progresses. Taking into account also the next five years' collections from the Village Panchayets, the total amount that would be normally available for ~~the~~ Rural Welfare works, ~~would be to the extent of~~ would be nearly a crore and a half.

The execution of the scheme will be the special responsibility of the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts, subject to the instructions of the Revenue Commissioner and the Government and the advice of the Heads of Departments concerned.

A Central Advisory Committee of official and non-official members will be ~~appointed~~ constituted to review the progress of the scheme and to suggest to Government practical methods of approach to the various rural problems.

~~A Committee consisting of~~ The Deputy Commissioner may avail himself of the help of the President of the District Board and a member of the Legislative Council of the ~~District will be appointed for each district~~ District for the selection of hobli workers. (Orders regarding the personnel of the committee will issue separately.) The workers are requested to send their applications to the Deputy Commissioners of the respective districts immediately. One hundred workers will be selected and will be given the necessary training for a period of three months before they are required to take up the work in the respective hoblis. The scheme will be put into operation during the current year in the hoblis as noted in the statement appended hereto.

Government Order No.L.8508-8567/V.p.44-35-2, dated 9th May 1936 sanctioning a scheme for the organization of concentrated propaganda in selected villages in the State.

Order No.

Dated, Bangalore, Septr.1942.

With a view to enlarge the scope of the work of the Village Panchayets, which was generally confined, in most cases, to measures of village sanitation and to concentrate and co-ordinate the efforts of the several development departments in villages, Government sanctioned in the Government Order read above a scheme for organizing concentrated propaganda in some selected villages in each district. It was the intention of Government that such villages might eventually serve as examples of good Panchayet administration which less advanced Panchayets might be induced to follow.

2. To begin with, the scheme was put into operation in June 1936 in 182 villages, two or three villages being selected in each taluk and the number of such villages has now reached 273. Appreciable results have been achieved in these villages in different directions indicated in the annexure to the

Government Order read above. But the expectations of Government that the welfare works attempted in the model villages would be readily followed by the other villages, have not been realized for several reasons and the general standard of a great number of villages in the matter of sanitation, Panchayet administration etc., still requires to be improved. During the Dasara Session of October 1941, the Representative Assembly pressed for the acceptance of Government a Resolution to the effect that every year at least 150 villages should be worked as model villages in each district. Government stated that it was not practicable to give effect to the Resolution as it stood but assured the House that the question of accelerating progress under Rural Reconstruction would receive the special attention of Government.

3. The matter was accordingly examined by the Government and they consider it necessary to lay down a programme for Rural Reconstruction active on a wider scale than at present, so that within a definite period of five years, the general standard of ~~the~~ Panchayet administration and of village amenities may be improved. It is therefore proposed to introduce concentrated propaganda into an entire hobli of each taluk during the first year commencing from the current year and to extend the scheme into other hoblis at the rate of one hobli each year. By this process, the scheme will have come into operation in all the villages in the State at the end of five years. The distinct advantage in selecting one entire hobli consisting of about 40 to 50 villages as a unit for concentrated propaganda instead of one or two villages scattered in a taluk would be that all the available resources of the several Departments could be pooled together with advantage and consolidated efforts put forth for fulfilling the primary needs of the hobli in the matter of sanitation, drinking water facilities, inter-communications etc. within a definite period. The scheme will be put into operation during the current year in ~~the~~ 82 hoblis as noted in the statement appended hereto.

4. With a further desire to associate more of non-official initiative and direction in the scheme of Rural Welfare Works, it is proposed to utilise the services of honorary workers who could reside in the hoblis and assist in creating a live interest in the villagers and in co-ordinating the work of the several Departments. An honorary worker will ~~therefore~~ be appointed for each hobli. If the number of villages is more than 40 in a hobli, two workers will be appointed. The workers will be paid an honorarium of Rs.30/- per mensem plus a contingent allowance of Rs.5/- per mensem. The various village problems which the hobli worker has to deal with are briefly set forth in the annexure to this Order. The Deputy Commissioner may avail himself of the help of the President of the District Board and a member of the Legislative Council of the District for the selection of hobli workers. A ~~notice~~ notification calling for applications in this behalf has been separately issued. The ~~xxxxxxx~~ intending candidates are requested to send their applications to the Deputy Commissioners of the respective districts immediately.

One hundred workers will be selected and will be given the necessary training for a period of three months before they are required to take up the work in the respective hoblis.

5. The money at the credit of Village Panchayets at present is about Rupees 28 lakhs and the arrears pending collection are to the tune of Rupees 39 lakhs. A sum of Rupees three lakhs has been provided under "Rural Reconstruction" in the current year's budget and it may not be difficult for the Government to increase the Government grant suitably as the scheme progresses. Taking into account also the next five years' collections from the Village Panchayets, the total amount that would be normally available for Rural Welfare Works would be nearly a crore and a half. The expenditure ~~in this behalf~~ on account of the pay of the workers etc during the current year will be met out of the grant of ~~one~~ 100 lakh of Rupees made under Rural Drive in the State Budget.

6. The execution of the scheme will be the special responsibility of the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts, subject to the instructions of the Revenue Commissioner and the Government and the advice of the Heads of Departments concerned.

7. A Central Advisory Committee of official and non-official members will be constituted to review the progress of the scheme and to suggest to the Government practical methods of approach to the various rural problems. It is hoped that the combined efforts of the official and non-official agency would create the necessary incentive and interest in the rural folk to raise the standard of village life.

GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

G. O. No. L. 15-64—V. P. 23-42-7, dated Camp Mysore, 22nd October 1942.

Rural Reconstruction Drive in Hoblis.

Issues orders re —— in the State.

READ—

Government Order No. L. 8508-8567—V. P. 44-35-2, dated 9th May 1936, sanctioning a scheme for the organisation of concentrated propaganda in selected villages in the State.

ORDER NO. L. 15-64—V. P. 23-42-7, DATED CAMP MYSORE, THE 22ND OCTOBER 1942.

With a view to enlarge the scope of the work of the Village Panchayets, which was generally confined in most cases, to measures of village sanitation and to concentrate and co-ordinate the efforts of the several development departments in villages, Government sanctioned in the Government Order read above a scheme for organising concentrated propaganda in some selected villages in each district. It was the intention of Government that such villages might eventually serve as examples of good panchayet administration which less advanced panchayets might be induced to follow.

2. To begin with, the scheme was put into operation in June 1936 in 182 villages—two or three villages being selected in each taluk, and the number of such villages has now reached 273. Appreciable results have been achieved in these villages in different directions indicated in the annexure to the Government Order read above. But the expectations of Government that the Rural Welfare Work attempted in the model villages would be readily followed by the other villages, have not been realised for several reasons, and the general standard of a great number of villages in the matter of sanitation, panchayet administration, etc., still requires to be improved. During the Dasara Session of October 1941, the Representative Assembly pressed for the acceptance of Government a resolution to the effect that every year at least 150 villages should be worked as model villages in each district. Government stated that it was not practicable to give effect to the resolution, as it stood, but assured the House that the question of accelerating progress under Rural Reconstruction would receive the special attention of Government.

3. The matter was accordingly examined by the Government and they consider it necessary to lay down a programme of Rural Reconstruction Drive on a wider scale than at present, so that within a definite period of five years, the general standard of the panchayet administration and of village amenities may be improved. It is, therefore, proposed to introduce concentrated propaganda into an entire hobli of each taluk during the first year commencing from the current year and to extend the scheme into other hoblis at the rate of one hobli each year. By this process the scheme will have come into operation in all the villages in the State at the end of five years. The distinct advantage in selecting one entire hobli consisting of about forty to fifty villages as a unit for concentrated propaganda instead of one or two villages scattered in a taluk would be that all the available resources of the several departments could be pooled together with advantage and consolidated efforts put forth for fulfilling the primary needs of the hobli in the matter of sanitation, drinking water facilities, inter-communications, etc., within a definite period. The scheme will be put into operation during the current year in the hoblis noted in the statement appended hereto (Appendix A).

4. With a further desire to associate more of non-official initiative and direction in the scheme of Rural Welfare Work, it is proposed to utilise the services of honorary workers who could reside in the hoblis and assist in creating a live interest in the villagers and in co-ordinating the work of the several departments. Each hobli will be in charge of a worker and if the number of villages in any hobli is more than 40, two workers will be posted. The workers will each be paid an honorarium of Rs. 30 plus a contingent allowance of Rs. 5 per mensem. The various village problems which the hobli worker has to deal with are briefly set forth in the annexure to this order (Appendix B).

5. The Deputy Commissioner may avail himself of the help of the President of the District Board and a member of the Legislative Council of the District for the selection of workers. A notification calling for applications has been separately issued. The intending candidates are requested to send their applications to the Deputy Commissioners of the respective districts immediately. One hundred workers will be selected and given the necessary training for a period of three months before they are required to take up the work in the respective hoblis.

6. The money at the credit of the Village Panchayets at present is about Rs. 28 lakhs and the arrears pending collection are to the tune of Rs. 39 lakhs. A sum of Rs. 3 lakhs has been provided under "Rural Reconstruction," in the current year's budget and it may not be difficult for the Government to increase the Government grant suitably as the scheme progresses. Taking into account also the next five years' collections from the Village Panchayets, the total amount that would be normally available for Rural Welfare Work would be nearly a crore and a half. The expenditure in connection with the scheme will be met out of the provision of rupees one lakh made under Rural Drive in the current year's State Budget.

7. The execution of the scheme will be the special responsibility of the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts, subject to the instructions of the Revenue Commissioner and the Government and the advice of the Heads of Departments concerned.

8. A Central Advisory Committee of official and non-official members will be constituted to review the progress of the scheme and to suggest to the Government practical methods of approach to the various Rural problems.

9. It is hoped that the combined efforts of the official and non-official agency would create the necessary incentive and interest in the rural folk to raise the standard of village life.
